1.	Read through and discuss the World Book Day Assembly (See the blog).
2.	Watch the Bringing Reading to Life event. The event will go live on World Book Day, Thursday 4th March at 10.30am and will last approximately 30 minutes. https://www.worldbookday.com/event/words-pictures-bring-reading-to-life/ Don't worry if you cannot watch live, it will be available on the website.
3.	Visit the World Book Day Author and Illustrator Academy. Choose an activity to complete. https://www.worldbookday.com/online-masterclasses/
4.	Make your own version of a favourite book (See the blog. You can retell the story in your own words and draw pictures for each page).
5.	Create your own book bunting (see the blog). Can you decorate your bedroom with bunting showing your favourite books?
6.	Try to complete the World Book Day Quiz (See the blog).
7.	Create your own bookmarks (see the blog). Can you make bookmarks inspired by books that we have read in class?
8.	Decorate your bedroom door in the style of a book that you love to read.
9.	Build a reading den at home. This can be indoors or outdoors. Can you make it comfortable and cosy? Don't forget, you may need a torch and a teddy to read to!
10.	Write your own quiz based on a book you like. Challenge someone to read the book and then answer the quiz questions.
11.	Visit the World Book Day website and explore the World of Stories Audiobooks. There are a range of books that are free to listen to and enjoy. https://www.worldbookday.com/world-of-stories/
12.	Complete the World Book Day Scavenger Hunt (See the blog).
